To All Conclave Secretaries, Grand Guide, and Grand Visitors.

Subject – Future Conclave meetings.

My very dear Brother Monitor Mason,

On the 20th March I announced that all Conclave meetings and the Conclave of Remembrance are to be abandoned due to the current health notices and the social distancing rules until 30 June 2020.

We have all adjusted our lives and are really sensibly, social distancing and not using public transport unless absolutely essential.

We are also gaining confidence in the light that notices and rules have been relaxed and allow a physical meeting of up to 10 people.

However, our members should not be placed in potential danger by allowing meetings to resume.

I am now directing that all Monitor meetings up to 10th October 2020 be abandoned.

It is important to note that this situation is fluid, and shifting circumstances will continue to affect our decisions, hence it is very possible that meetings after that date will also have to be abandoned.

I encourage you to make every effort to retain contact with the members and a virtual meeting via Zoom is proving to be of great value. Please don't hesitate to contact the Grand Recorder should you require assistance in this regard.

I look forward to a happy resumption of our meetings without the threat of this virus hanging over us.

Yours thoroughly and fraternally

Lynden
